ATLANTA BAR ASSOCIATION
LAWYERS WHO SERVE

BARD SHOW SPONSORSHIPS

The Atlanta Bar Association's "A Courthouse Line" series is a not-quite-annual original musical theatre production written by, produced by, and starring, a cast made up entirely of talented Atlanta-area lawyers and judges. Beginning with the first production in 1999, the "Courthouse Line" series has entertained lawyers and non-lawyers alike, and, in the process, has raised more than $350,000 to support the charitable activities of the Atlanta Bar Foundation. Since its inception, the Atlanta Bar Foundation has distributed more than $2 million to fund Atlanta Bar Association community service projects and other law-related programs in the Atlanta area.

This year's production, A Courthouse Line XIV: Law of Ages, will be the second wholly-original show since the founder of the Bard Show, Cathy O'Neil, passed away in 2017. It is expected to feature the talents of dozens of lawyers, with even more providing support behind the scenes. The performers come from big firms, small firms, solo practices, academia, corporate counsel positions, prosecutors' offices, defense firms and the judiciary. The performances will take place at the Porter Sanford Performing Arts & Community Center on November 6-7, 2026.

Please consider sponsoring this year's Bard Show production at any level to help us support the important charitable work of the Atlanta Bar Foundation. Donations can be made by check along with the attached form, or online at www.BardShow.com/Sponsorships.

Program Ad Specifications

If you choose to sponsor the Atlanta Bard Show at a level that includes an ad in the show program, please follow these image specifications when designing your graphics.

Please ensure the image format is PNG, and is under 20 MB.

Recommended minimum dimensions:
– Full-page ad: 2120 pixels wide x 3176 pixels tall (prints at 4 ⅛” wide x 7” tall)
– Half-page ad: 2120 pixels wide x 1548 pixels tall (prints at 4 ⅛” wide x 3 ¼” tall)
– Third-page ad: 2120 pixels wide x 1005 pixels tall (prints at 4 ⅛” wide x 2 ¼” tall)

Note that the program is playbill-sized (5 ½” wide by 8 ½” tall), so keep those dimensions in mind when designing for readability.

The deadline to submit sponsorship ads is October 1, 2026. If your ad is not received in time, we will simply utilize your firm’s logo and website address, unless you state at the time of donating that you do not want this contingency.

For questions regarding ad specifications, please contact Loren Collins at bardshowatlanta@gmail.com or Gieava Stinchcomb at gstinchcomb@atlantabar.org.

Please email final ads to bardshowatlanta@gmail.com and gstinchcomb@atlantabar.org.
